

Deliverable D5.2

The CORESMA website has been online since the beginning of September 2020; see www.coresma.eu. The site has been designed to provide all those involved and interested with quick access to all information and news as well as publications. The content of all work packages can be found there with the individual project objectives. The individual project partners and external experts are listed in the Consortium.